Venice, Dec. 19. N. S.

THE Imperial Army commanded by Prince Eugene continues encamped near Lonato. The French Army under the Duke of Vendoſme is alſo ſtill in the ſame Camp, not far from the Imperialiſts: He has lately ſent a Detachment to take Poſt at Dezenzano. Another Detachment of his Troops is poſted along the Mela; and a third has paſſed the Mincio near Borghetto, and ſeems to deſign the laying of a Bridge there over that River.

Vienna, Dec. 19. The Council of War has received Letters from the Governor of Arath, with Advice, That on the 14th Inſtant 12 Huſſars arrived there, who give an Account of a ſecond Action in Tranſilvania, not far from Samos-Ivar, where Field-Marſhal Herbeville had defeated a great Number of the Malecontents, and made himſelf Maſter of that important Fortreſs, and of a very conſiderable Train of Artillery. They add, That he was marching from thence in purſuit of the Enemy towards Biſtritz. Count Schlick was not preſent at this ſecond Action, having been ſent to confer with Field-Marſhal Rabutin, who came out to meet him 3 Leagues from Hermanſtadt, with a Detachment of 1000 Foot and 300 Horſe, with which he was marching towards Mullebach, in order to retake Deva; And Count Schlick was returning with 3 Regiments of Horſe and a Body of Raſcians through the Territory of Kalmath towards Gena. They write from Presbourg of the 14th, That Count Berzeni was ſaid to have paſſed that day thro' Sommarein in the Iſland of Schutt, going towards Oedenbourg, with intent, as was thought, to beſiege that Place with a Body of Malecontents. Baron Szirmay went from hence this morning towards Hungary. There are Hopes that the Peaſants in Bavaria will ſubmit; and, through the Interceſſion of the Archbiſhop of Saltzbourg, will obtain of the Emperor an Amneſty for the Diſorders already committed. To morrow Te Deum will be ſung in the Cathedral of St. Stephen, and there will be great Rejoycings, for his Catholick Majeſty's late glorious Succeſſes in Catalonia.

Ratisbon, Dec. 24. The Malecontents in Bavaria took lately by Surpriſe a little Town called Landau, on the River Iſer; and having left but a ſmall number of their Men there, marched to attack Dingelfingen; but the Governor of that Place having Notice of it, marched out againſt them with all the Horſe in his Gariſon, and ſoon put them to flight. They then returned to Landau; but the Inhabitants, who in the mean time had turned out their new Gariſon, ſhut the Gates upon them, and ſtood to their Arms; and the Malecontents did not think fit to attack them. Kelhaim has alſo been retaken from them by a Body of Imperial Troops, which is ſince marched to Ingolſtad, a ſufficient Gariſon having been drawn out of it to be left at Kelhaim, and a Reinforcement to be ſent to the Gariſon of Straubingen. More Imperial Forces are marching towards Bavaria; and we have great reaſon to hope that a ſhort end will be put to that Inſurrection.

Francfort, December 27. Two Regiments of the Elector Palatine's Forces are marching into Bavaria, beſides three of the Duke of Wirtemberg's Troops, and two of thoſe of the Circle of Francenia; ſo that there will ſhortly be a conſiderable Body of Troops in that Electorate, ready to reduce the Malecontents there, if they do not prevent it by laying down their Arms. It is ſaid, the Duke of Wirtemberg is to command the Forces that are to be employed in this Service, The Gariſon of Landau in Alſace has lately been reinforced with a Regiment of Foot.

Hague, Jan. 1. N. S. The Convoy which is to attend the Duke of Marlborough in his Paſſage to England came before the Goree the 28th paſt, and is ſince come into Helvoet-Sluys. His Grace intends to embark with the next opportunity of Wind and Weather. The States General have appointed Monſieur Buys, one of the two Penſionaries of Amſterdam, to be their Envoy Extraordinary to Her Majeſty of Great Britain; and he intends to take the Opportunity of his Grace's Convoy to go over thither. Letters from Madrid ſay, the Duke of Anjou's Departure from thence towards Catalonia was put off a ſecond time, and that it would not be before February next, there being ſtill a Want at that Court of ſeveral Things which are neceſſary for his going upon ſuch an Expedition.

Falmouth, Dec. 22. The 14th Inſtant arrived here the Margaret Galley, Joſeph Emmons Maſter, of Boſton, one of the homeward bound Jamaica Fleet, laden with Sugar and Ginger: She came laſt from Boſton, whence ſhe ſet Sail the 18th paſt, in the Company of ſeveral other Merchant-men, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ship the Guernſey, but was ſeparated from them the 24th in bad Weather. Yeſterday ſailed hence to cruiſe the Marlborough, a Privateer of Fluſhing. This day came in here the Lark Galley of this Place, John Richards Maſter, laden with Wine from the Canaries, but laſt from St. Ubes; and the Prince Packer-Boat from Plimouth.

Plimouth,
